My own version of the text:

Koba? Are you there? Im instantly letting you know:
Death is permanent end of your life,
It is the depth of damnation you dive,
No matter wheather human or just sub relation,
You are the part of the process called annihilation,
Heart stops beatig, You´re no more eating
And after body is dead,
Senseless soul needs bread,
It will be only Devil´s breath what you get.
Only Devil´s voice what you get.
Koba in coma, It´s just Death aroma,
Kobacoma, Death´s aroma
You sure you want to be with me I´ve nothing to give,
Take a walk take a rest taste the rest,
Use me, I´m the best, call me Death, be my guest!
Take a walk take a rest a taste of rest,
I´m Koba in coma, It´s just death aroma
Kobacoma, death´s aroma

Thus the paper was handed from one to another round the table. The guests passed it around in silence like a document from a different world as the General continued.
